2. OUR SERVICES

2.1. Mass pay: Our mass pay feature allows users to process large volumes of multi-currency payments via an online platform.

2.2. ibanq: ibanq is our multi-currency payment platform through which users can accept and process payments or execute foreign exchange orders.

2.3. As part of our ibanq and mass pay products, we allow you to add funds onto an e-money account (including by allocating funds to a Sub-account), which we shall provide to you and which is to be operated and used in accordance with these Terms, in order to (i) make Payment Instructions using such funds; and (ii) enter into Orders. We call this an "E-Money Account".

2.4. The E-Money Account is not a deposit or a bank account. Funds held in the E-Money Account are to be used solely in connection with the Services we offer. We do not pay interest on the funds held in the E-Money Account, and funds held in the E-Money Account are not accessible from an ATM or by cheque. The funds are also not protected from deposit insurance.

2.5. The Services rendered to Clients by IFX located outside of the United Kingdom, Canada and United Arab Emirates are conducted on a cross-border basis. The Client agrees that the characteristic performance of our Services is conducted in the United Kingdom. By agreeing to receive the Services, any Client outside the United Kingdom, Canada and United Arab Emirates, acknowledges and agrees that (i) you have not been targeted by IFX; (ii) there has been no material prior marketing to the Client, in any jurisdiction where IFX is not locally licensed to do so; and (iii) the Client approached IFX for its Services on its own initiative.

2.6. If you are a Charity or a Micro-Enterprise, your rights and obligations will differ as follows: (i) the notice periods set out under clauses 4.1.1, 10.2 and 11.4 will apply, (ii) you must notify us if there is a change to your status as a Charity or a Micro-Enterprise under clause 4.1.9.1, (iii) you may be able to submit a reimbursement claim if you are a victim of an APP Scam set out under clause 6.4, and (iv) the corporate opt out provisions at clause 17 do not apply to you.

3. FEES, CHARGES AND SAFEGUARDING

3.1. The Charges, as applicable from time to time, are set out in the Pricing Schedule. Unless stated otherwise our Charges are exclusive of value-added tax and other taxes, which will be payable by you. Additional fees may be charged for requests outside of the scope of the Services, such as information and documentation requests. These fees (if applicable) will be communicated to you when the request is made.

3.2. In the absence of pre-agreed fees between the Client and IFX for foreign exchange trading services ("Forex") (as set out in a Pricing Schedule or otherwise), IFX will apply such fees and charges for Forex as it deems appropriate for the Client. IFX will determine the applicable fees and charges based on a number of factors, including but not limited to:

- 3.2.1. the type of Client (e.g., corporates, charities, trusts);
- 3.2.2. the Client's geographic location(s) (i.e., where it is based and where it operates);
- 3.2.3. the nature of the Client's business and business sector; and
- 3.2.4. the duration of the Client's relationship with IFX.

3.3. Should you wish to pre-agree fees for Forex, please contact your Account Executive.

3.4. Out-of-hours: trading hours are 08.30 to 17.30 in the United Kingdom, Monday to Friday, when banks in England are open for business ("Trading Hours"). The Client's E-Money Account(s) with IFX may permit Orders to be booked and/or made outside of Trading Hours ("Out-Of-Hours"). Unless otherwise specifically provided for in the Pricing Schedule, pre-agreed Forex transaction fees included in a Pricing Schedule do not apply to Out-Of-Hours conversions or trading. For certain Out-Of-Hours conversions or trading IFX will apply a reasonable extra percentage-based fee, which may change according to when and how frequently the currencies are traded. The Client can avoid the application of the extra percentage-based fee by booking/making Orders during Trading Hours. IFX reserves the right (in its sole discretion) to cancel an Order that is made Out-Of-Hours in the event the exchange rate for the currency as set out in the Order has changed materially from the time the Out-of-Hours Order is made to the time the Order can be reasonably executed during Trading Hours.

3.5. Should you wish to pre-agree alternative Out-Of-Hours fees, please contact your Account Executive to arrange for these to be specifically provided for in your Pricing Schedule.

3.6. IFX reserves the right to revise the Charges unilaterally and at its discretion. Subject to clause 10.2, amendments to Charges will be communicated to the Client via email. The Client shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by giving IFX written notice within 10 Business Days of receipt of notification given by IFX of an increase in the Charges, otherwise, the Client shall be deemed to have accepted any such increase. If you are a Charity and Micro-Enterprise you do not need to provide notice to terminate pursuant to this clause 3.6.

3.7. As an EMI, we are required to ensure that 'relevant funds' are appropriately 'safeguarded' in accordance with the provisions of the Safeguarding Regulations. There are different ways in which this can be achieved. We use the following methods in accordance with the Safeguarding Regulations:

- 3.7.1. Segregation method: Relevant funds received by us corresponding to e-money are held in one or more segregated bank accounts separately from our own funds or are invested in secure, liquid assets that have been approved by the FCA.
- 3.7.2. Insurance method: Certain relevant funds may also be safeguarded by an insurance policy or comparable guarantee from an authorised insurer or credit institution, which pays out in the event of our insolvency.

3.8. We may use either or both of these methods to safeguard your funds at any given time. Further details can be found at www.ifxpayments.com/safeguarding. It is important to note that as an EMI we are not covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme or any deposit protection scheme in any jurisdiction in which we operate.

3.9. The Charges will either be (i) invoiced monthly in arrears; or (ii) deducted at the point of provision of the Services, as agreed with us. By using our Services, you agree and authorise the automatic settlement of invoices due to us through a recurring debit authority from your E-Money Account. Pursuant to this clause, we reserve the right to and are authorised to deduct any overdue Charges from your E-Money Account without notice. If you elect for fees to be deducted from your E-Money Account at the point of provision of the Services, the Charges will only become payable after the Payment Instruction has been fulfilled.

3.10. We are an EMI and not a bank. Therefore, we are not able to pay interest on any funds held by us.

3.11. You must pay any amount due to us in unencumbered and cleared funds. Time for payment of the Charges shall be of the essence for the purposes of this Agreement. If you fail to make payment in the time stipulated to do so, this will constitute a material breach of these Terms for the purpose of clause 11.5.2 and we may deduct any amount due to us from your E-Money Account without further notice to you.

3.12. If the Client fails to make a payment due to IFX under this Agreement by the due date, then, without limiting IFX's remedies under clause 11, the Client shall pay interest on the overdue sum from the due date until payment of the overdue sum, whether before or after judgment. Interest under this clause 3.12 will accrue each day at 4% a year above the Bank of England's base rate from time to time, but at 4% a year for any period when that base rate is below 0%.

3.13. All amounts due by the Client under this Agreement shall be paid in full without any set-off, counterclaim, deduction or withholding (other than any deduction or withholding of tax as required by Applicable Laws). The Client shall, when making the payment to which the withholding or deduction relates, pay IFX such additional amount that will ensure IFX receives the same total amount that it would have received if no such withholding or deduction had been required.

3.14. The Client is responsible for determining if any taxes, or related charges apply (in any jurisdiction) to the payments it makes or receives in its E-Money Account and collecting, reporting and remitting the correct amount of tax to the appropriate tax authorities. If IFX is required to withhold any taxes, IFX may deduct the amount for any such taxes from any balance in the Client's E-Money Account and pay them to the appropriate authority.

3.15. IBANQ may permit the Client to book Forex trades with insufficient settlement funds in their E-Money Account. By agreeing to purchase the currency by clicking "Purchase Currency" (or otherwise), the Client hereby agrees and accepts it is entering into a legally binding contract to settle an Order in accordance with the IFX Trading Terms. The Client agrees it is contractually obliged to fund the E-Money Account with the settlement funds on or before the Value Date (as defined in the IFX Trading Terms).

3.16. IFX reserves the right to charge a reasonable administration fee if the Client has not used the Services provided pursuant to this Agreement or used the E-Money Account for a period of 2 years or more calculated from the date the last Payment Instruction or Order (where applicable) was received by IFX from the Client.

4. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES

4.1. The Client shall:

- 4.1.1. notify IFX of unauthorised or incorrectly executed Payment Instructions without undue delay on becoming aware of any unauthorised or incorrectly executed Payment Instructions, and in any event no later than 5 Business Days of the Payment Transaction (except if you are a Charity or Micro-Enterprise). If you are a Charity or Micro-Enterprise, you must notify IFX of any unauthorised or incorrectly executed Payment Instructions within 13 months of the Payment Transaction;

4.1.6. co-operate with IFX in all matters relating to the Services and provide IFX with such information and materials as IFX may reasonably require in order to supply the Services, and ensure that such information is complete and accurate;

4.1.7. not copy, imitate, modify or use any IFX Intellectual Property, including IFX's names, logos, signs, graphics, page headers, button icons and/or scripts without IFX's prior written consent;

4.1.12. obtain all such rights, powers, authority, licenses, consents, permissions and authorisations to make use of the Services and the E-Money Account and to enter into and perform its obligations under this Agreement; and

4.1.13. not create, grant, agree to provide or place a charge or any other form of security or encumbrance over your E-Money Account, or any other funds held with us without our prior written consent.

4.2. If IFX's performance of any of its obligations under this Agreement is prevented or delayed by any act or omission by the Client or failure by the Client to perform any relevant obligation ("Client Default"):

4.2.1. without limiting or affecting any other right or remedy available to it, IFX shall have the right to suspend the Client's access to and use of the Services until the Client remedies the Client Default, and to rely on the Client Default to relieve it from the performance of any of its obligations in each case to the extent the Client Default prevents or delays IFX's performance of any of its obligations;

4.2.2. IFX shall not be liable for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by the Client arising directly or indirectly from IFX's failure or delay to perform any of its obligations; and

4.2.3. the Client shall reimburse IFX on written demand for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by IFX arising directly or indirectly from the Client Default.

4.3. If the Client fails to provide, within 10 Business Days of a request to do so, any documents or other information IFX may require from the Client to satisfy its compliance checks, IFX may elect (in its sole discretion) to cancel the relevant Payment Instruction without further notice to the Client. IFX will use reasonable endeavours to ensure that the information that appears in any documents, account statements, other communications addressed to you, or on our Platforms, is accurate and up-to-date. In the event that the Client identifies any mistakes, errors, or inaccuracies, it must promptly notify IFX in writing, providing all relevant details and supporting evidence. 6.1. Unauthorised transactions: In the event of an unauthorised or incorrectly executed Payment Transaction, IFX shall refund the amount of the unauthorised or incorrectly executed Payment Transaction to the Client and where applicable, restore the E-Money Account to the state it would have been in had the unauthorised Payment Instruction not taken place, by ensuring that the credit value date is no later than the end of the business day on which IFX becomes aware of the unauthorised or incorrectly executed Payment Transaction. For the avoidance of doubt IFX will only refund an unauthorised Payment Transaction under this clause 6.1, where the Client informs it of the same within the timeframe identified in clause 4.1.1.

6.2. Without prejudice to the above clause 6.1, where IFX have a reasonable suspicion that the Client or any person acting on the Client's behalf has acted fraudulently or with gross negligence, then prior to repaying any amounts to the Client, IFX is entitled to conduct an investigation and IFX will notify the Client of the outcome of the same as soon as possible. If the outcome of the investigation shows that the Payment Transaction was indeed unauthorised or incorrectly executed, then IFX will refund the Client in accordance with the terms set out in clause 6.1. However, if following this investigation, IFX concludes, based on its reasonable opinion, that the Client is not entitled to a refund because the Client has acted fraudulently or with gross negligence, then IFX can charge the Client for IFX's reasonable costs in carrying out the investigation and deduct those from any money IFX may hold on account for the Client.

6.3. Client fault: For the avoidance of doubt, in the absence of a Client's notification of an unauthorised or incorrectly executed Payment Instruction within the timeframe identified in clause 4.1.1, IFX shall not be liable for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by the Client arising directly or indirectly from any executed Payment Instruction where any such transaction was authorised with the Client's consent pursuant to clause 5 and executed in accordance with the Client's instructions.
